

Sango Brethren Prayer Meeting

20/06/2020

Good morning my neighbours.

So it's time for us to pray again. Let's gather our hearts for to pray. I don't want us to be tired of praying actually. It's expedient that men pray in order for God to work on earth. So don't be weary. Our Lord Jesus hasn't stopped praying though he is seated on the throne. How much more we, who have barely started what is called prayer.

Having said these, can we begin to thank our Lord Jesus. I want us to pray in tongues. I'd love if everyone of us participates actively in today's prayer. By that, I mean our hearts should be involved. Let's thank Jesus for mercies, for life. We thank you Jesus for our families. Thank you Jesus for showing us even this path. Thank you for revelation. Thank you for being willing to reveal yourself to us. Thank you for predestination. Thank you for grace you've supplied even for obedience. We give praise. Thank you for better things, for better promises for a better hope, for better covenants. Thank you Jesus. Hallelujah!

I want us to pray for help. That the Lord by mercy will lead us through today's meeting. We are praying for direction and for utterance. We ask for help for our hearts that we won't despise you even in our hearts. We pray for hunger and thirst, bless us with hunger. We ask for mercy for our hearts. Amen.

Thank you Jesus. I ask for help today Lord Jesus. Hallelujah.

I'm here under our pastors on this group. I'd just say the few things I find in my heart. Basically, I'll be flowing from what my pastor, Pastor Dennis Chibuikwe, gave as exhortation yesterday. I was blessed tremendously yesterday. But I still find that direction in my heart somewhat. Let's say Amen.

It's good we know that what we've been called to inherit is nothing earthly, neither is it anything of this present heavens. Our inheritance comprises fabrics that this present creation cannot hold. This present is made of substances far lower than the inheritance. Angels as we know from scriptures desire to look into these things. Most times, when we hear this statement, we imagine a book which is correct, judging from Revelation, but that book is not a physical book. The little book is not paper. They didn't cut out of a tree in heaven to make paper. No! The little book is made up of strands of eternal thought patterns that can form an eternal being in a man. Manifold fragments of thoughts.

Pastor Dennis made us see that what God wants to do is to bring us into a thought realm called God!!! But we have an adversary. This adversary has the same holy ambition that we have, or we ought to have. At least we've been called to have this ambition. I believe all of us here are Gadites. We are wrong if we believe that we don't have to war. This belief just defeats the whole point of being a gadite. Being a gadite is not by singing 'All my guys are gadites, Ahoo!!! 🙌'. Satan self will shout Ahoo with you 😄. It's not by wearing 'I am a Gadite' shirt and having all the colours plus Hoodie. It's in our ability to fight!!!

There's no inheritance of divine nature without warring. As in guys, everything is not going to be smooth. Why? We have an adversary. So don't expect to just feel like listening to messages 24/7. Don't cry because you don't feel like praying. Don't feel discouraged because you never feel like reading your Bible. Truth is, nobody ever feels like doing those things if he/she hasn't fought well. You will never get to a point where you do those things by default if you haven't fought. Satan has harassed many of us with thoughts because we never feel like doing the aforementioned things. He tells us that we are not growing. He'll say that you are just following the brethren. You can never understand Christ. You just dey waste time.

But I want to say this under our pastors that;

YOU ARE GROWING!!!

YOU ARE NOT WASTING TIME!!!

YOU ARE FOLLOWING!!!

YOU ARE UNDERSTANDING!!!

Satan is a bastard. I'm not yabbing him, that's just his state. Yes!!!!!! Amen. Hallelujah.

I hear in my spirit. Fight!!!! War!!!! Fight! War! Fight! War!

I perceive there's so much war going on in our heavens. We are drawing pretty close to Revelation 12. I see in my spirit that Michael and his angels are preparing to go to war. This war is the battle in Revelation 12;

Revelation 12:7-9KJV

[7] And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels. [8] And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. [9] And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

We can see here that we have the victory even before the battle began. But if this war is about to take place, it means that men are already being raised. These men are not just chowing (eating) revelation, they are by mercy using revelation to war spirits down. We see the Armour of God and Armour of Light Pastor Dennis talked about which are in Ephesians 6 and Romans 13 respectively, they are not physical armours. They are eternal thought patterns.

My being a gadite is not to be an activist on twitter and to be generating hashtags. It is not to be fighting enemies in my father's house. My being a gadite is to war down thoughts. These are the real household enemies. My enemies are in my house. Enemies within. But I need to be equipped to bring them down. Satan is resilient. So in your quest of being equipped, he'll keep fighting. One mistake some of us unknowingly make is to postpone the war. We are waiting for when we are fully equipped before we start fighting but your adversary is not waiting for you to be equipped first. In fact, his first job is to stop you from being equipped. He's going to shoot thoughts at us to stop building.

So our war starts from now!!! We must fight to hear!!! We must fight to pray. We must fight to study scriptures. We must fight to stay under. We must fight to obey. We must fight to keep what has been delivered to us so far. The apostle would say, CONTEND EARNESTLY. He didn't just say contend, I mean, that would have drive home the point. He said contend EARNESTLY. In order words, put your life on the line!!! Stake your life on the faith.

Kai, Bible is complete. We will never be able to wear the armour if we have not done all to stand.

Ephesians 6:13 KJV

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

It was after this verse Apostle Paul began to describe the armour. Meaning, you must have won many wars before then. The fact that you've denied certain thoughts does not mean that those thoughts won't return. As in, I want to remove that 'relaxation' mentality. As soldiers, we ought to be on guard at all times.

Let's make it practical. After meetings were paused, many of us started having terrible thoughts. Thoughts that we thought were past tense. We know those thoughts. We actually felt we had outgrown them, but Satan does not send you!! Do you have Adam's stature?. Forget it, he will use the most demeaning thing to tempt you through thoughts. It's like this; when you see the thought, you'd feel insulted initially but you'll notice that there's still a pull. You'd notice that this demeaning thought still has a hold on you somewhere. Now, you don't war down these thoughts by asking Satan

'Are you kidding me? You know who I be?'

Satan's gonna ask you; 'Who you?'

Before you can shout 'I'm d war, I'm d fight, I'm d indabos...' You'd have fallen.

It is meekness to shout for help. Our tool is meekness. Exposing that thought is meekness. How many of us know that it is warfare to expose a thought??? That thing na fight abeg. If you can submit that thought, you're leading 1-0. Let our warfare not be like Tottenham Hotspur vs

Manchester United. Let it be like Manchester City vs Arsenal abeg. Arsenal fans, I love you guys with sincerity. But we get what I'm saying. We ought to fight. We cannot afford to stop fighting.

The reason why Satan would bombard us with thoughts is because we are making progress in the realm of the spirit!! I AM MAKING PROGRESS!!! So if I'm making progress, I should expect more ferocious warfare from a wounded lion. Don't be discouraged guys. What you're going through is common to all. Nobody has it easy. But everyone has to keep fighting. Find solace in brethren. As I'm talking to you guys, I'm fighting certain thoughts. Our pastors are fighting. So you also must fight.

I find that the Lord is releasing so much grace to us as a company. Grace to fight. Grace to hear. Grace to obey. Grace to pray. Grace to submit. Grace to war. I want us to specifically pray for graces to come for us to pray individually. We won't just wait till we feel like praying. There will just be grace. April is a season oh. It's not just a month, and that season just might not be over yet. In fact, it's safety to believe that the season is still on. Hence the need to keep praying. Satan knows that if he can defeat us here, he can leave the rest to mukukus. I want us to pray with our spirits.

Lastly, let's stay with scriptures. This makes for an important part of our weapon of warfare. Jesus' reply to Satan during the temptation in the wilderness all began with 'it is written...' This written here was not just about what was written in the law and the prophets. It was what was written in his mind and heart by reason of fellowship and obedience. But first of all, stay within the confines of scriptures. Fight to read your bible. Judge all experiences by the scripture. It's safety.

Can we thank our Lord Jesus for help. As in I've been blessed. Thank you Jesus. Thank you for utterance. Thank you for blessing all of us. Thank you for help. We give you praise Jesus. We ask for baptism of grace. Grace to war. Grace to do. We thank you our Lord Jesus.

We pray for mercy even for our pastors on this group. That you'll help them not to come short of the standards being shown.

Thank you for answers to prayers. In Jesus' name we've prayed. Amen.

Shalom.
